ORLEANS SCENES

The last time my weekly trip was still on the trip to various schools had dropped and bloomed by of chrysanthemum out front. A my first hospital followed a to type out leaves were had changed some of them Roses still bright hues brick steps for 18 days, years. Then in Boston while I underwent X-ray treatments. It was not an easy time, but the results have proven most worthwhile. Now I have pretty well regained my strength and was able at last to return to my classroom a week ago Monday. There I received a most warm welcome from both my students and fellow-teachers. It was indeed good to be back.

I have gone into some detail about the reason for the long absence of "Orleans Scenes" chiefly because I have had many inquiries from readers, especially from off the Cape, as to why the column has been missing. I am grateful for their interest and I am especially appreciative of the literally dozens of cards and letters I received during my illness, messages from many friends and acquaintances as well as from many folks whom I have never met but who read The Cape Coddler. To them all I extend my sincere thanks. Their good wishes helped a lot during a difficult time.

We, the Class of 1971,
dedicate our yearbook to

Dr. S. Stewart Brooks
non illegitimi carborundum

"... the ocean is land-lord as Well as sea-lord, and comes ashore without a wharf for the landing ..."

Thoreau

"Thus Cape Cod is anchored to the heavens . . . by a myriad little cables of beach-grass."

Thoreau

"The waves forever rolling to the land are too far-traveled and untamable to be familiar."

Thoreau

Trees

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is pressed
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God each day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray.

A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

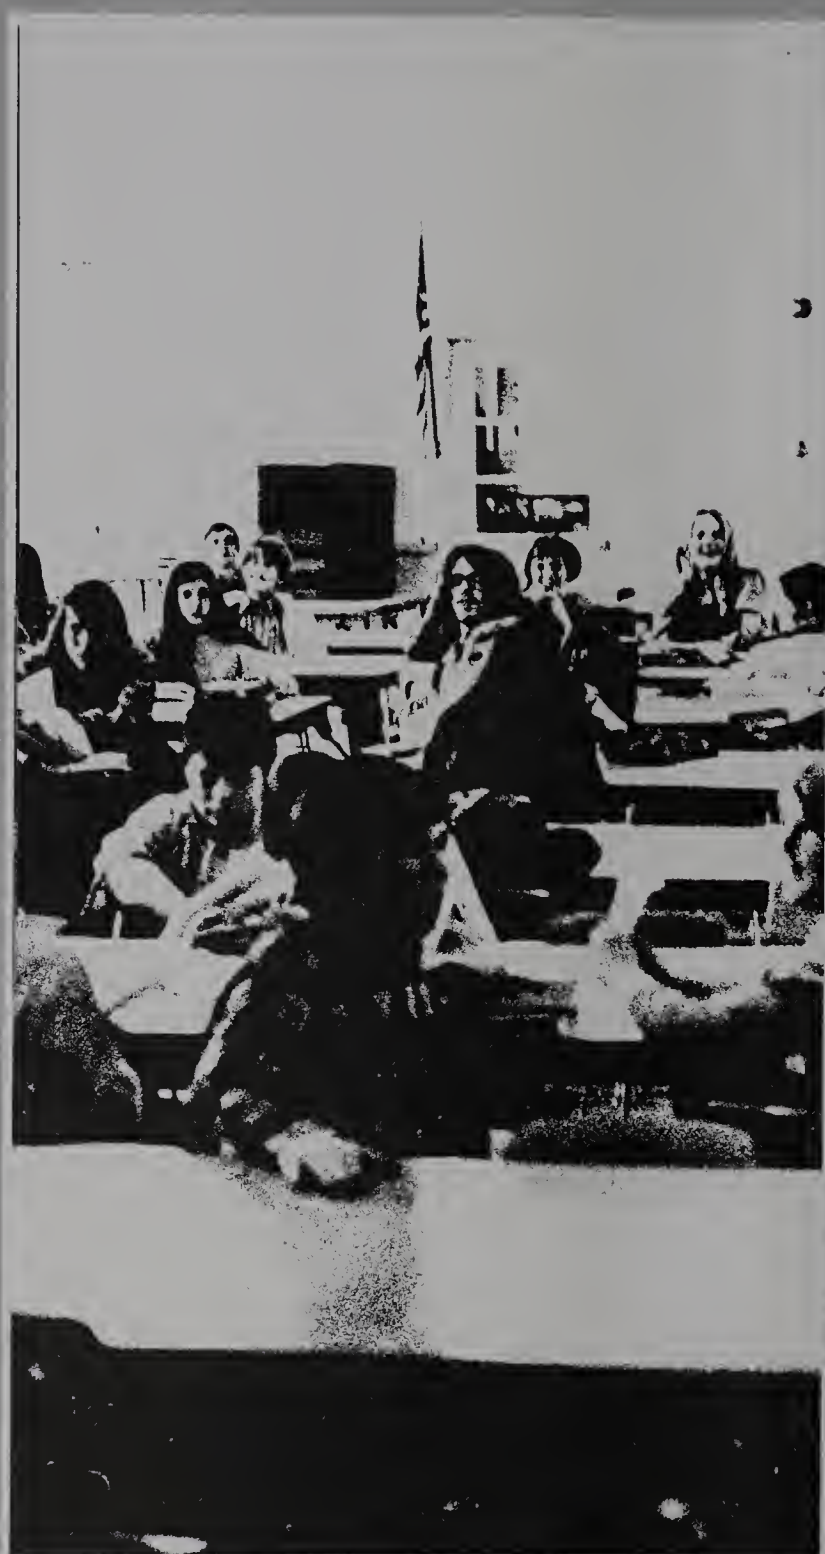

Joyce Kilmer

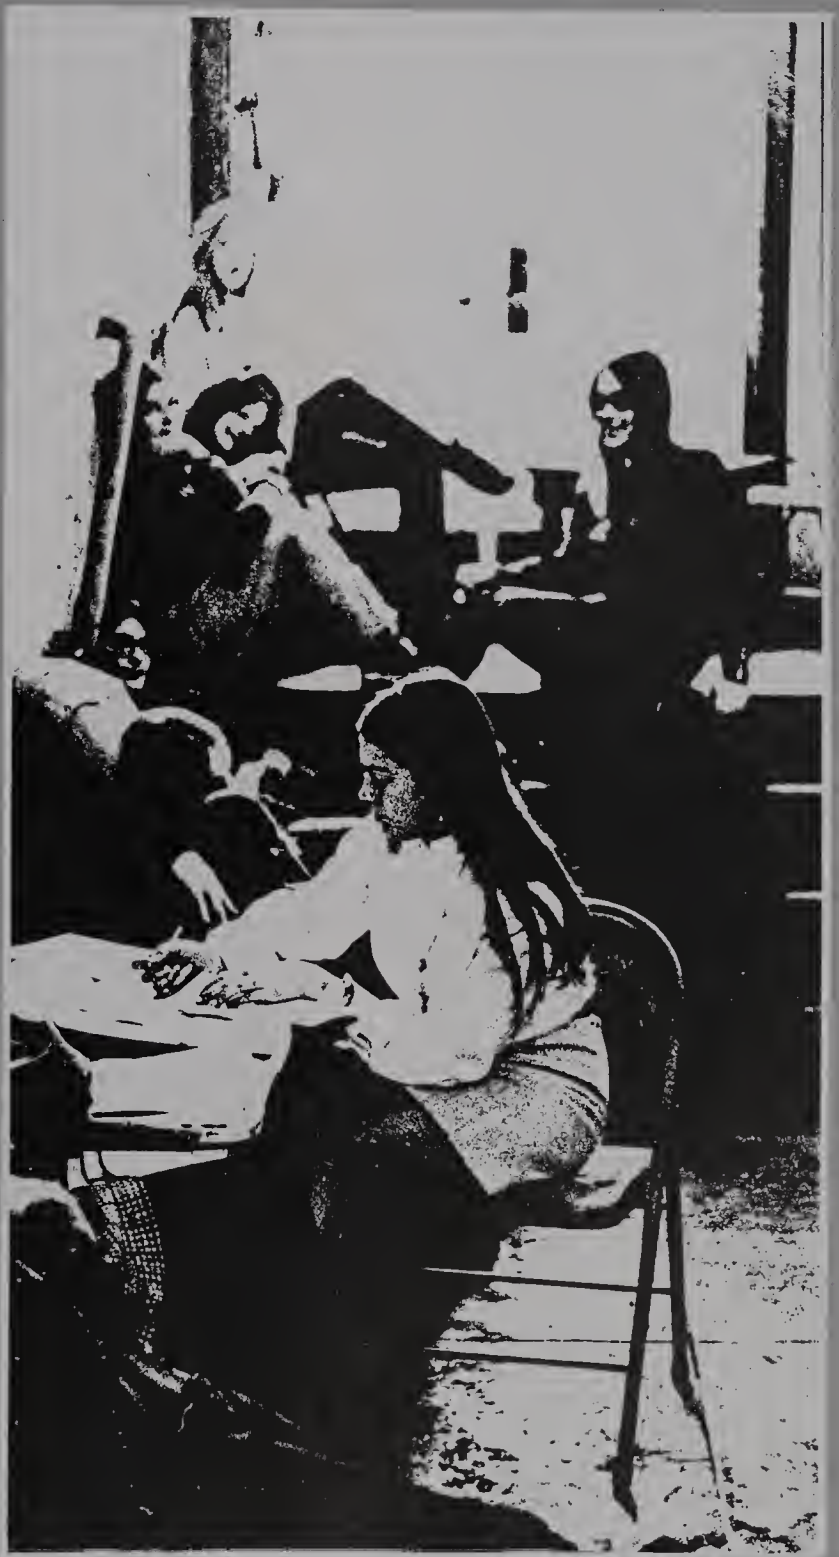

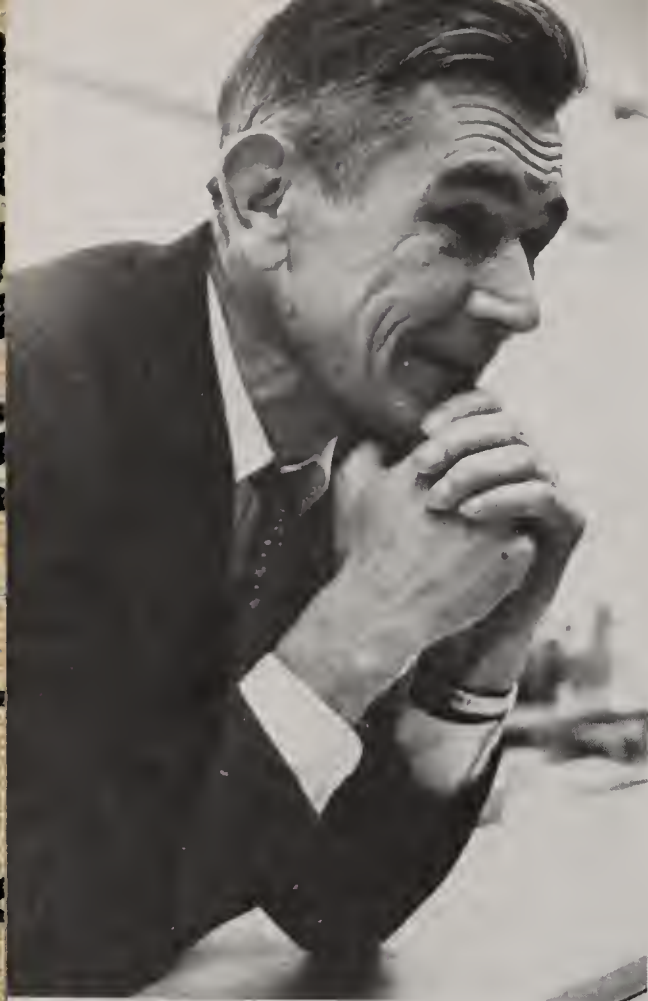

A god has brought us
this peace.

ACTIVITIES '71

The crew at Willow's

Our Junior Prom used the Zodiac as the theme with the title "Mirage in the Stars." Willow's garage came in handy as a meeting place to paint the 24 zodiac posters which lined the walls of the gym. The Mel Von Trio provided the music which was a good selection of popular songs. At ten o'clock the Grand March started and the doors were crowded with spectators who came to see the crowning of the royal family. The big moment came when Darcy Gainey and Brian Savin were crowned Queen and King. Members of the court were Willow Dougherty, Patty Fettig, Linda Young, Mary Coombs, Bob Haskell, Bruce Bartlett, Kenneth Hibbs, and David Crocker. Other features of the Prom were the goldfish pond and our gypsy fortune teller. Some of us didn't go home for two days.

The Styx Excursion

McKendree Spring

The Junior Class, headed by David Edwards and a host of real workers, brought a little life and some really great music to Nauset.

McKendree Spring showed us why their "weird folk" sound is so popular on college campuses and why they are a group that we will hear a great deal of in the future.

Linda Cullum and Mariellen Fuller, followed by the Styx Excursion, opened what has to be the greatest night of popular music ever heard in a high school on Cape Cod. We only hope it is the start of a new tradition at Nauset.

Howes, and J. Eldredge.

The students of this year's Music Department have been involved in numerous activities — New England and Cape Cod Music Festivals, parades, and concerts in other towns, thanks to Mr. James, the director of music, Mrs. Dary, and Mrs. Emerson.

The main objective of the department is to bring an understanding and enjoyment of music not only to the students participating in the activities but to the whole student body as well.

Annually Nauset has sponsored a Christmas program, which includes the senior high band, orchestra, and chorus.

In the spring are the spring concert, Memorial Day parades, and graduation.

Orchestra

The members of the Orchestra are J. Fisher, K. Penney, S. VonItter, D. Deschamps, J. Richman, K. Berger, M. Fuller, S. Gage, M. Livingston, P. Gage, P. Melcher, G. Howes, J. Cahill, J. Baker, C. Chorus

Chorus members are L. Macioci, E. Von Schyndel, J. Sorenson, M. Smith, H. Joseph, T. Penney, W. Jamison, L. Mead, L. Fox, S. Tabor, C. Deane, G. Finn, P. Field, T. Richards, D. Scott, B. Brown, B. Houghton, B. Fulcher, L. Johnston, and H. Arnberger.

Trid, our bomb from Sweden!

The way we'll remember her.

AFS

Astrid Sundstrom came to Nauset as an American Field Service student from Lulea, Sweden. She spent her year here with Mary Rogers' family in Wellfleet. Trid adapted well to us. She spoke excellent English and made friends of the entire student body. She joined the girls' basketball team though she had never played the sport in Sweden. Her height was certainly an advantage!

We hope Trid remembers her year at Nauset. We certainly won't forget her!

What a pair!

Debate started as an English elective in the fall and ended with Nauset being one of the charter members of the Cape Cod Debate League and recording a fair percentage of success.

The question endlessly refined all year was — Resolved: the federal government should organize, finance, and administer a program of air and water pollution control.

Generally speaking, Nauset was more successful on the affirmative than on the negative side of this question. The top debater over the season proved to be Edward Lamperti, who also functioned as the club's secretary, the only office in the informal organization of the group.

Mr. Gray was the advisor, and the members were all freshmen or sophomores, indicating a good future for debating at Nauset.

Besides the boys in picture, members included York Wade and Bruce White.

The Future Teachers of America have had a really fine year because of the program under which members worked regularly with teachers in Orleans, Eastham, and Wellfleet elementary schools.

Thanks to Mrs. Berrio, the advisor, and the cooperation of many elementary school teachers, FTA members this year have gained real insight into the problems and rewards of being a teacher.

The FTA was one of the most active clubs in the school. Besides the school work, there were field trips, meetings, and plenty of lighter moments as well.

Officers of the club were Janet Svenningsen, president; Wendy Fates, vice president; Mary Rogers, secretary; and Lana Pickard, treasurer.

The Future Nurses of America had a successful year with a variety of activities, including field trips, guest speakers, and regular meetings to work and plan.

One of the highlights of the year was a trip to the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, during which members got a real opportunity to learn first-hand some of the behind-the-scenes activities of a big hospital.

Mrs. Martin was a great source of knowledge as the advisor. Linda Acorn was the president; Janice Fisher, vice president; Joanne Garfield, secretary; Alexander Guyer, treasurer.

Below and to the right are some of the FNA members helping the Red Cross when the Bloodmobile came to Orleans. Steve Koehler, who is interested in pre-med, also helped out.

Drama

There ain't no thorny bore of Borythorne.

The Drama classes directed by Mrs. Emerson have been a high point of the school year. We adapted four children's plays from fairy tales and produced them as one-act plays. They were "Zerbin the Woodcutter," "Thirteen Clocks," "The Wizard of Oz," and "Alice in Wonderland."

The elementary school children of the region loved them, to say nothing of the high school audiences!

Besides these plays the Drama classes also entered the Regional Drama Festival with a play from Collision Course entitled "Rats." The stars were Robert Houghton, Paul Fegan, and Mary Ann Popoli.

One big project of the classes was the weekly radio show on WVLC, on which the journalism class also helped.

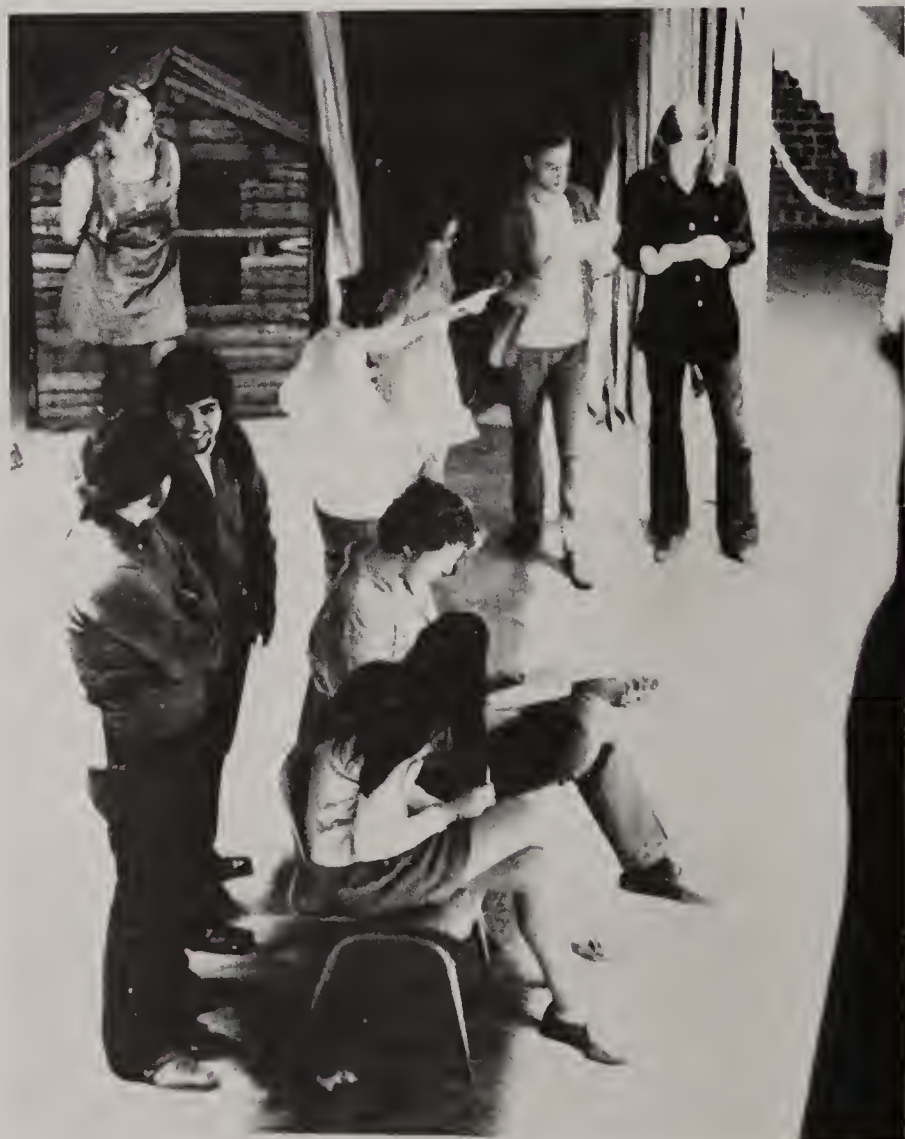

Drama field trips this year included a trip to Boston to see "Jacques Brel Is Alive and Well Living in Paris." We also went to see "Who's Afraid of Virginia Wolfe," at the Charles Theater in Boston. We were afraid the Charles would not open this year because of their financial problems, but with hard work they pulled through.

Other interesting trips included the Harwich Winter Theater and a production of "Earth Song," a contemporary audience-participation musical which was spine-shivering with emphasis on world problems today. Our big show this year was "Guys and Dolls."

Journalism at Nauset this year was quite different this year. There was no school newspaper, but we branched out into radio with a weekly program on WVLC, a combination of school news and original drama club productions. There was also a weekly news column in the Sunday Standard Times.

Dana Scott was the voice of Nauset over WVLC with Steve Brown covering sports. On the writing side, Jon Rice, Lou Anne Dorrie, and Steve Brown again produced the best columns.

Yearbook

Ordinarily a yearbook staff has a professional photographer who comes in and takes the pictures, and develops them, and a yearbook company representative who comes in and shows the staff how to lay out each page in the book.

Not so with the Class of 1971. The pictures in this book were almost all taken and developed by students. Each page in the book has been designed and laid out by a student.

Most yearbooks feature the senior class in a series of identical portraits, page after page. Not the Class of '71, which features seniors in a variety of informal pictures.

We of the staff hope that our new ideas meet with your approval. In any case, we know that this book is uniquely our own, not something we have gone out and hired to be done.

Although every member of the staff has contributed to the final result, some are deserving of special notice. The sports staff and the photographers have been outstanding, and four individuals have carried the book all year and deserve the greatest credit for any success: Candy Chase, Mary Coombs, Willow Dougherty, and John Maffin.

Candy and Mary were the co-editors. Willow was the business manager. John was the head photographer.

Others deserving of special mention include Renie Menengas, Steve Koehler, Mary Craffey, Ken Blake, Jon Rice, Mary O'Connor, Darcy Gainey, Chuck Melcher, and David Johnson.

We wish to thank also Mrs. Baker for her patience and her library, and T. Nichols for his cooperation and his negatives.

Through hours of practice they polish their cheers with fine precision and high enthusiasm.

Although they did not have a championship team to cheer for, the girls never lost their enthusiasm, and whether it was an early season defeat or the final upset win over P'town, the boys and the fans always knew the cheerleaders were behind the team all the way.

The Nauset soccer squad had a record of 13-3-1, and wound up with a share of first place. Six team records were broken during the season which saw four Nauset players make the All Cape Soccer squad. Bad luck on a coin toss and a corner kick ended the season and kept the team from going to the state tournament.

Field Hockey

Team Captains and Seniors: M. O'Connor, M. Miller, K. Berger

The varsity field hockey team had an undefeated season, taking second place in the Cape and Islands league with 7 wins and 4 ties. Led by tri-captains Mary O'Connor, Kathy Berger, and Marilyn Miller, the team displayed a strong offense and consistent defense. Spirit was high during both games and practices, and the girls look eagerly ahead to next year's season, and another crack at Sandwich.

Cross-Country

Some Senior Squad Members

The Cross-Country Team had a successful season, racing against 9 teams in 10 meets. Under Coach Gray the Nauset team was a member of the newly-formed Mayflower League but ran against non-league teams also. The team participated in the Catholic Memorial Invitational Meet, where Captain Steve Brown and sophomore Gary Ellis both won trophies. Nauset also ran in the State Meet, where Brown, placing 1st in Division VI, won another medal. Nauset's season record, 9 wins 6 losses.

It was a season of ups and downs. There were many high as well as low points. The boys although starting slow never quit and they gave the fans exciting action. The highlight of the season was a 60-54 victory over P-Town. The win helped the team move into third place and end up with a six and six record. Undergraduates helped the team a great deal showing a lot of promise for the next two years.

"Lordy, Lordy up above . . ."

The Nauset J.V.'s, coached by Paul White, found themselves outmanned for much of the year and wound up on the short end of a 6-13 season. Despite the overall record the boys had their nights and played some fine ball games. The opponents margin of victory averaged out to 3.8 pts. per game and this produced some exciting basketball.

The J.V.'s were led in scoring by David Mulholland, Steve Bennett and Bruce Dunne. Bennett and Dunne led the team in rebounding and should be ready to help the varsity in that department next year.

Waiting in Readiness

Mgr. Bruce Hunter, Mike Tartaglia, Bill Ramsay, David Mulholland, Bruce Dunn, Steve Bennett, Peter Woods, Noel Dunham, Duncan Penny, Steve Phillips, Stanley Wileox, Mgr. Jerry Doyle, Coach White.

The Nauset Freshman Team had a respectable season, considering the schools they played; their opposition included D-Y, Falmouth, Barnstable, and Duxbury. The Freshmen finished the year with a 6-5 record led by high-scoring Peter Woods. The highlights of their season was their win over P-Town, when they came back from a 10 point half time deficit. This team shows fine promise for future years.

The girls' team exploded into action this year starting the season with a 5 man game and a new coach. They compiled a very impressive record of 9-7 which doesn't even show the 4 games they lost by under 4 points. Loaded with talent and spirit the girls played with a new confidence that Coach Butterfield hopes will lead a better record next year.

Nauset on defense

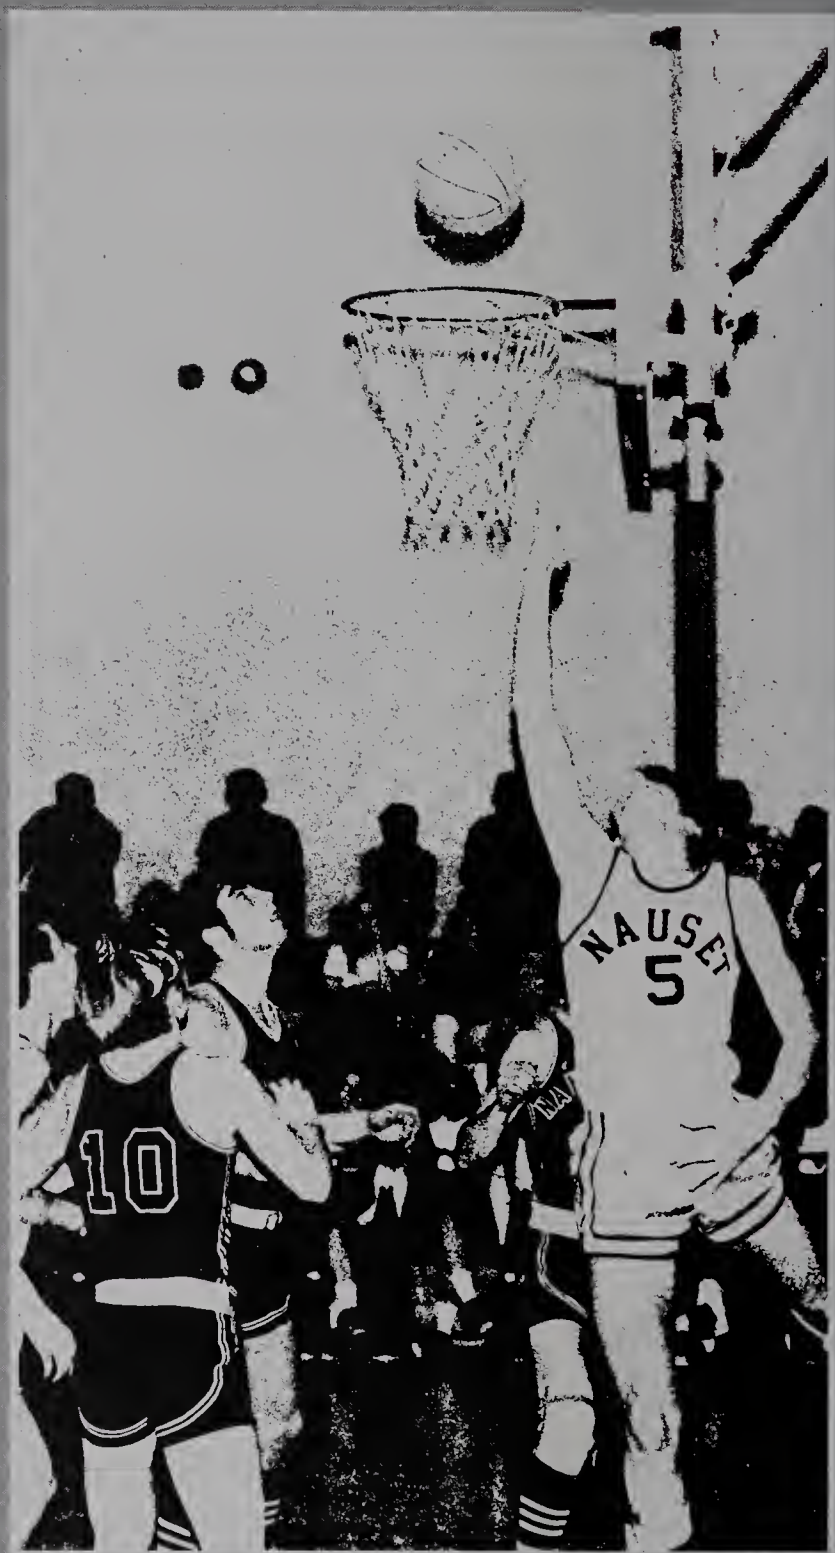

With a 13-3 record and a good eye for the hoop, the girls' junior varsity team was comprised of 10 very promising players. Behind high scorer Bonnie Macdonald and a great team defense, this club was the one to beat. This fine team ought to be proud of its record and is looking forward to an exciting season next year.

Citizens of Dogpatch, U.S.A.

A not-so-bad bad guy.

Marryin' Sam and the happy couple.

A Dogpatch beauty.

The Scraggs

Because "L'il Abner" was one of the highlights of our junior year, and because so many of our classmates participated in its production, we feel that it should not be omitted from our yearbook.
